

Intermediate Certificate Course in Family Therapy (Fall 2025)

Course Objectives:

This course is designed for professionals who are interested in acquiring clinical experience in working with live families. It employs a hands-on approach on how to apply theory to actual practice. On top of didactic lectures and exercises for skill training, participants will be engaged in working with live families, including assessment and treatment. Participants can bring in their own cases or participate in cases of AAFT to gain practical experience. This course is taught by Mr. Presley Ko, Program Director.

Entry Requirement:

Applicants should have basic concepts in family therapy, preferably (not necessarily) from participation in our Basic Certificate Course in Family Therapy.
