About the Workshop

This workshop focuses on overcoming childhood developmental and behavioral challenges while presenting effective solutions. Based on his extensive experience as a paediatric specialist in developmental and behavioral paediatrics, Dr Cheng Man Yung will delve into key success factors for the future and share strategies for nurturing them during early childhood. He will share specific case examples to illustrate ways of working through these challenges and propose ways of relating to young children that will foster healthier interactions at home. Participants who have attended Dr Cheng's previous talks will gain further insights from this session. An interactive discussion with attendees is encouraged to enhance the learning experience.
