Marriage & Family Therapy Clinic: Live Case Demonstration (Oct-Dec 2026)

Course Objectives:

Our Live Case Demonstration is an important feature of AAFT, providing a platform for clinical and intellectual exchange among professionals from different background. In each session we will interview a live family case. It provides a rare opportunity for participants to take part in the case formulation and live family interviews conducted by Wai Yung Lee, Ph.D. and other experienced family therapy trainers. The cases cover a spectrum of developmental, marital and family issues and are referred by professionals from various disciplines. Our approach is trans-disciplinary marital and family oriented, including the fields of psychiatry, psychology, social work, pediatrics, and family medicine.
