

Clinical Supervision in Marriage and Family Therapy (Oct 2026 - Mar 2027)

Course Objectives:

The Clinical Supervision aims at expanding individual style with the purpose of helping therapists become more versatile and able to adapt to working with diverse family systems from different social classes and service settings. The class will be taught by Wai-Yung Lee, Ph.D. (AAMFT Approved Supervisor).

Course Highlights:

Learning takes place primarily through the supervision of the participants' work. Participants are required to actively participate in clinical practice and present videotaped segments of their work for supervision.

Certificate of Completion:

Upon successful completion of the program, participants will be awarded a certificate of attendance issued by the Asian Academy of Family Therapy with the number of supervision hours received stated.

Entry Requirement:

Applicants should be human service professionals and possess knowledge in family therapy, preferably (but not necessarily) from participation in our Advanced Certificate Course. We will arrange an interview for qualified participants.
